

Terrace Women's Resource Centre Society (TWRCS) is proud & honoured to create a “Safe Space” event

July 23rd, 2026 – Kitsumkalum Hall -- 4pm – 8pm

with special speaker: Duane R. Grant “Ceehixid” Haisla nation presenting:

“In Regalia: Pride in Two Spirits” a short video & discussion:

Duane Stewart-Grant, who is from ǂà'islaḱ'ala (Haisla) and nuučaaḱuḷ (Nuu-chah-nulth) First Nations explores his identity as someone who is “Two Spirited”,. Sharing the importance of reclaiming culture

Duane retells his personal journey as a Two-Spirit Indigenous person who is reclaiming his identity against the backdrop of intergenerational trauma, colonization, and residential schools. Through his narration we learn about the sacred roles of Two-Spirit People and how their positions were dismantled through enforced gender roles.

“Git Hayetsk Dancers”

The Git Hayetsk Dancers are an internationally renowned dance group led in partnership by artist and carver Mike Dangeli (Nisga'a, Tsimshian, Tlingit, and Tsetsaut Nations) and Dr. Mique'l Dangeli (Tsimshian and Tlingit Nations), Assistant Professor of Indigenous Arts in the Department of Art History and Visual Studies at the University of Victoria

Mike & Mique'l Dangeli are bonded by their connections to the Sm'algyax speaking peoples with distinction in their family ties to the many other Nations in Northern British Columbia, the Yukon, and Southeast Alaska.

Since 1999, they have shared their songs and dances at ceremonial and public events in urban and rural communities through Canada, the US, Alaska., and abroad including Austria, Malaysia, Germany, and Japan.

Kitsumkalum Doors open: 3:30pm, Duane Grant: 4pm., Git Hayetsk Dancers 5pm., BBQ by Kasiks 6pm Terrace Women's Resource Centre Society (TWRCS) thank the Tsimshian people for sharing their unceded ancestral Territories.
We acknowledge that we have a responsibility to listen, learn and unlearn, and to seek opportunities for reconciliation.
And special Thanks to the Cedar LNG for their encouragement and support for this amazing event.
